

Scholarship Application

The Scholarships for dependent children or dependent spouses of active duty, retired, or deceased officers of the USPHS Commissioned Corps was created to recognize the contributions by families of the USPHS.

Qualifications: The applicant must be a dependent child or dependent spouse of an active duty, retired, or deceased officer of the USPHS Commissioned Corps. Applications are considered from current or entering college/vocational students. Applicants must complete this form, or in the case of a disabled applicant, a parent or guardian of the applicant. Applicants must have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale). The awards are made without regard to race, creed, color, sex, religious belief, national origin, or rank of the sponsor. Applications should be mailed to Commissioned Officers Foundation for the Advancement of Public Health, 8201 Corporate Drive, Suite 200, Landover, MD 20785, and received no later than June 1, 2007.
